

GRACE
WORKS
BY J. C. O'HAIR
AND OTHERS

INSTRUCTIONS and THOUGHTS

Some of Pastor O’Hair’s works are hard to find. The front cover of his booklet is typically reproduced in the summary of the work and in the first page of each work. This may help the reader in identifying each specific booklet.

In his listing of booklets he sometime used partial titles or even synonyms of the true title, therefore a definitive list is almost impossible to construct.

Since many of the titles are esoteric and do not intuitively suggest the content of the work, therefore, a summary of each of the works have been prepared by the copyist.

Included in some of Pastor O’Hair’s publications were the works of other Grace pastors and teachers. These have also been reproduced.

When you select one of the formats below, by clicking on it, you will be taken to the index of the summaries relative to that format.

In the Microsoft Word format, go to the table of contents in the index of the summaries. Select the title and click on its page number. This will take you to the summary of the work. Clicking on the icon at the summary will take you to the work. Microsoft Word is needed on your computer to access all of the features.

In the Adobe Acrobat formats, select the summary of the work in the Bookmarks. Clicking on the title in the summary will take you to the work. If you lose navigation, close all windows, go to Start, Run, type in START.pdf, Enter.

When you open a work as an E-Book it will open in Full Screen so that you may read the work as you would a book in hand. Use the Esc key if you want to use the Bookmarks or other tools. Use the ‘Return To Index’ button to exit the work.

The web addresses for H. A. Ironside’s: “Wrongly Dividing the Word of Truth” and “Baptism, What Saith the Scriptures” are given in lieu of copying them. A. E. Bishops’s: “Tongues, Signs, and Visions” was copied.

In order to be able to search the writings for specific verses all Scripture references have been changed to the following format: Roman Number, Full Name, Chapter, Colon, Verse. For example: II Corinthians 12:12.

I can still hear Pastor O’Hair’s voice tenderly pleading with sinners to place their faith in the finished work of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Bible was Pastor O’Hair’s vorpal sword, with which he destroyed the teachings of those who would not rightly divide the scriptures. He used the Word of the Lord, precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snarled and taken. Isaiah 28:13.

Pastor O’Hair’s work was not in vain, neither was his entrance unto us in vain. May he continue to minister unto us through his writings. Stewards of the mysteries of God are we, until we meet Him in the air.

PURPOSE OF THIS CD

The purpose of this CD is to make available many of the works of J. C. O'Hair which have been out of publication and circulation for many years.

The greatest joys I received from making this CD were the hours I spent reformatting his writings. I could almost hear his voice, as he wrote much as he preached.

Feel free to Copy any of J. C. O'Hair's writings and distribute them freely to any student of the Word.

When a student from The Milwaukee Bible Institute would visit Pastor O'Hair in his church they would be offered an opportunity to go into the storeroom and take as many booklets as they could use.

I remember an incident concerning a couple with whom I had shared the Message of Grace. They became listeners of his weekly broadcast in the Chicago area. They wrote to Pastor O'Hair and asked for a list of his writings, telling him how much they loved the grace message. They never received the list, instead, a week later they received a box with a collections of his works.

It is in this spirit that I am making his works available without charge.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Miss Evelyn James, Pianist
The Trio: Cornelius Kerr, Ralph E. Briggs AND Carl Weber
Pastor J. C. O'Hair is at the microphone

This is the group who broadcast every Tuesday evening at 9:30 to 10 over radio station WSBC, 1230 kilocycles.

We understand that our Tuesday WSBC broadcast is the only evening gospel broadcast in this section (except Sundays). Just think of the worldly programs and so little time given to the Lord's message.

At one time North Shore Church and Pastor O'Hair owned and operated their own radio station. It's call letters were WPCC (We Preach Christ Crucified). Chas. F. Baker was the chief engineer.

Pastor O'Hair was heard on WMBI (Moody Bible Institute station) for a short period of time.

He was also heard on Sunday night on the radio station WLS, as late as 1956. Like to hear J. C. O'Hair now? Click on "RADIO BROADCASTS" above.

NORTH SHORE CHURCH

North Shore Church is located in “uptown” Chicago, Sheridan Road and Wilson Avenue. This organization was formerly “the North Shore Congregational Church”. The building was constructed in 1906.

There has been only three pastors, namely, James Ainslie, Paul Riley Allen and John C. O’Hair. Mr. O’Hair’s pastorate dates from August, 1923.

North Shore Church is undenominational but in it’s membership are former Methodists, Mennonites, Episcopalians, Swedish Covenant, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Baptists, Plymouth Brethren, Quakers, Congregationalists, Roman Catholics and Jews. But now we are just sinners saved by grace.

Today, November 2003, the church building is occupied by the Uptown Baptist Church.

The following poems written by Pastor O'Hair were set to music by Wayne A. Webb.

LIFE BEGINS AT CALVARY

Life begins at Calvary
Where Jesus died for sin;
Until you come to Calvary
Your life will not begin.

The life received at Calvary
Will never, never end;
So come to Christ at Calvary;
He's still the sinner's friend.

CHRIST IS ALL THAT HE CLAIMED TO BE

Christ is all that He claimed to be,
I'm so glad that He lives in me.
My hope of glory, yes He is,
For He is mine, and I am His.

MY FATHER IN HEAVEN

My Father in Heaven,
I want to be true.
To be led by Thy Spirit,
In all that I do.

By Thy grace and power,
In the name of Thy Son.
To so live and labor that,
Thy perfect will be done
